

Activities - Village Walk

How did the people live hundreds years ago? Come with us and visit the rural life in the Mayana villages, There is no water and no electricity. We will visit together some extended families and you can imagine how the people survive. You may try to pound the meal in the mortar.

