Hello! We are Monique and Marcus, fun-loving globetrotters and connoisseurs. We write on our blog, Beautiful Places for Lovers. It is not only for lovers, but also for those romantic souls, who simply love travelling, nature, (wild) animals, wide, open spaces, tranquility, good food, other cultures, countries, fabulous beaches and simply, life itself!

In our travel blog for newly in love couples, those still very much in love or the forever in love couples, magical and extremely romantic hotels and destinations are paramount. We give inspiration and tips for dreamlike honeymoons, short romantic getaways for two, or even one's own dream wedding on the beach. In 2012, we even got married on the beach of La Digue in the Seychelles.

Collaboration

We are happy to travel to extraordinary and romantic hotels and destinations and then report on it. Reference ("real time" marketing) is given on our various social media channels and is followed by detailed reporting with many pictures and one or more video and / or video interviews on our blog.

We also include extraordinary and suitable hotels in our eMag "Honeymoon & Wedding Guide" - with the best honeymoon destinations and the most beautiful places for weddings abroad.
